

Easy Pay Recurring Bank Card Authorization Agreement

Easy Pay Discount is not applicable if paying through Recurring Bankcard.

Date of Automatic Bankcard Charges

The automatic charges will occur on or after the due date of my billing account.

Duration of Agreement

The Recurring Bankcard authorization agreement is to remain in full force and effect until Nationwide Insurance® has received authorization from me to terminate this agreement in such time as to afford Nationwide Insurance® and my financial institution a reasonable opportunity to act on it. Nationwide Insurance® may terminate the Recurring Bankcard program and provide notification of such termination.

Installment Fees

I acknowledge that an installment fee is incurred with each Recurring Bankcard payment, unless the term premium is paid in full. The amount will be reflected on my bill, which I can view and print from MyNationwide® account.

Failed Payments

I acknowledge that if any automatic payments from my bankcard are declined by my financial institution, the failed payment will be considered in the same manner as a dishonored paper check. Nationwide Insurance® reserves the right to resubmit the charge to my Bankcard account. Nationwide Insurance® reserves the right to seek replacement money for a failed automatic charge. This may result in fees from my financial institution and/or Nationwide Insurance®. I acknowledge that the origination of an automatic charge transaction to my Bankcard must comply with the provisions of U.S. law.

Deduction Notice Frequency Option

I can view and print my statements when I access my account at mynationwide.com.

I will only receive a statement at renewal and if the amount charged has changed from the previous statement. This Bankcard authorization agreement will remain in effect in the event that Nationwide Insurance® changes this limit. I will be notified in writing of any change in this limit.
